

AUNG KHANT THAW

Architecture student at Singapore Polytechnic

About Me

I am a Year 2 Architecture student at Singapore Polytechnic and an aspiring architect. I translate building codes and social contexts into impactful designs using AutoCAD, Rhino 8, Revit, and Photoshop. I bring strong leadership and operational skills from co-founding a startup platform, allowing me to manage complex project workflows and coordinate studio teams seamlessly from concept to completion.

Contact Details

☎ +65 85675079

✉ aungkhanthaw1100507@gmail.com

Top Technical Skills

- Sketchup
- AutoCAD
- Revit
- Rhino

Soft Skills

- Teamwork
- Team management
- Problem solving
- Critical thinking

Education

Singapore Polytechnic
(Diploma in Architecture)
(2025 - 2028)

- Member of SP Ambassador Club
- Mastered 2D/3D software such as AutoCAD, Sketchup, Rhino, Revit

Guarantee International College
(O-levels) (2023 - 2024)

- Class leader
- Chess Club leader

Experiences

The ANTs tutoring
Self-employed

2024 - present

I founded The ANTS, a tutoring group dedicated to supporting IGCSE students through peer-guided instruction, exam strategy, and consistent academic mentoring. This initiative reflects my belief that leadership in architecture begins with service, clarity, and community impact.

Guarantee International College
Part-time tutor (Sketchup software class)

2025

Gained 1 month of experience teaching the basics of SketchUp software to secondary students

Volunteering

Archifest
Singapore Institute of Architects
Event Volunteer

2025

3 Days experience of handling registration, giving guidelines for incoming participants, guests, and VIPs to their designated forums.

Awards

Guarantee International College
Art Fiesta Competition
2nd Place winner

2024

Participated in a painting competition under the theme of "Sustainable urban living" where contestants are challenged to imagine the future of green cities

Language

English (Fluent)

Burmese (Native)

French (Basic)